Mr. Steve Suggests

Sai is one of the lucky ones: not only does she get to work for her country's most famous mapmaker, she gets to join him on a sea voyage for a royal expedition. If their ship finds the fabled Sunderlands, the home of dragons, everyone on board will be rewarded beyond their wildest dreams.

There's just one problem: everything about Sai is a lie. She's not a well-mannered young lady - she's the daughter of a convicted criminal, and a cunning con artist in her own right. This voyage offers her the chance to escape her father and his schemes - but the southern seas are dangerous, and Sai is not the only liar on the ship...

What lies beyond the edge of the map? Find out in this fast-paced adventure by Christina Soontornvat!

Reading "The Paris Library"
by Janet Skeslien Charles

An instant New York Times, Washington Post, and USA TODAY bestseller—based on the true story of the heroic librarians at the American Library in Paris during World War II—The Paris Library is a moving and unforgettable “ode to the importance of libraries, books, and the human connections we find within both” (Kristin Harmel, New York Times bestselling author).

1:00 pm on Thursday 7/28

Adult Summer Reading:

The Adult Summer Reading program is open to all readers 18+. To enter, simply pick up a packet at the library!

To complete the challenge, read 4 books that satisfy 4 of the many given categories and return your packet by August 5th. Completion of the challenge will enter you into a raffle in which you could win an Ogden Farmers' Library Tote bag filled with books or a $50 amazon gift card!

Editor Pete Suggests:

Lost, Season 1 is about a cast of strangers who must learn to survive together after a plane crash leaves them stranded on a mysterious island.

I came to Lost, Season 1 skeptically, as I have disliked other products by its director, J. J. Abrams. Happily, Abrams has impressed me greatly here. The huge cast of 15+ lead characters is managed commendably well. I think it's the mark of a strong cast when you just can't pick one favorite character (Claire, Hurley, and John are all favorites of mine).

Each episode of Lost, Season 1 focuses on a different character and tells two stories in parallel. We see the past as the character encounters a major moment of personal struggle. This timeline establishes the character's internal conflicts and motivations. Concurrently we see the present, as the character faces some survival predicament which forces them to either sink deeper into their vices or finally champion that part of themselves. This formula nourishes both emotionally resonant storylines and tense action as each builds on the other.

Have you heard 'the big spoiler' about Lost? Don't worry - I have too, and I can assure you that knowing the big secret does not detract from the excellence of this show.

Lost, Season 1 does it all: action, emotion, and the best feel-good moments I've seen on TV. It made me smile, laugh, and 4815162342 again and again.

If you feel Lost for what to watch next, take my advice and try Lost, Season 1!
